Callaloo seeks manuscripts of unpublished poetry, fiction, and creative nonfiction for a special issue

HAITIAN LITERATURE AND CULTURE

Edited by Edwidge Danticat and Charles H. Rowell

We invite submissions for a special bilingual issue of Callaloo on contemporary Haitian literature and culture. We are also interested in original visual art—e. g., paintings, sculpture, photography, drawings, etc.

- Creative nonfiction (informal essays by Haitians, autobiography, memoir, etc.)
- Creative writing (original poetry, short stories, or excerpts from novels by Haitian writers).
- Artwork (sculpture, photography, painting, etc.) by Haitians artists.

To make this special project an international success, we are asking each of you to pass this information to Haitian writers and visual artists who live inside and outside Haiti.

Callaloo* Submission Guidelines:

Submissions will be accepted until December 1, 2011. To obtain more information about the submission process, contributors should visit the Callaloo website at <<http://callaloo.tamu.edu/guidelines.html>>. To submit a manuscript, go to <<http://callaloo.expressacademic.org/login.php>> and follow the instructions.

Manuscripts should not exceed 10,000 words (approximately 25 double-spaced pages, Times New Roman, 12). All academic manuscripts should follow the most recent edition of the MLA Style Manual and Guide to Scholarly Publishing.

Please direct questions or other correspondence regarding this special issue to Callaloo via email at callaloo@tamu.edu. Please do not send any manuscripts to the guest editor, Edwidge Danticat. All submissions should be sent to Callaloo. Callaloo has switched to an online manuscript tracking system. For submission guidelines, please visit <http://callaloo.tamu.edu/guidelines.html>. To submit your manuscript, please go to <http://callaloo.expressacademic.org/login.php> and follow the instructions.
